Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT A: TOPICS TO BE ADDRESSED AT THE DEPOSITION

For purposes of this Attachment, Hewlett Packard Company should use the following definition for the terms used herein.

ATTACHMENT B: DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED AT DEPOSITION

For purposes of this Attachment, Hewlett Packard Company should refer to Attachment A for the definition or meaning of terms used herein, which definitions are incorporated herein by reference. In addition, the following definition applies:

A. "Document" means all types of documents and things embraced within Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 34 and includes, without limitation, any writing and each original, or a copy in the absence of the original, and every copy bearing notes or markings not present on the original or copy, of the following items, however produced or reproduced, namely: books, accounting records of any nature whatsoever, agreements, communications, correspondence, facsimiles, telegrams, cable, telexes, memoranda, recordings, studies, summaries or records of telephone conversations, summaries or records of personal conversations or interviews, diaries, letters, forecasts, statistical statements, graphs, laboratory or engineering reports and records, notebooks, charts, plans, sketches, drawings, video tapes, films, slides, information bearing photographic products of any nature whatsoever, photo-records, microfilms, tape recordings, minutes or records of meetings or conferences, expressions or statements of policy, lists of persons attending meetings or conferences, reports or summaries or interviews, reports or summaries of investigations, opinions or reports of consultants, patent studies, or opinions of counsel, records, reports or summaries of negotiations, sales literature of any nature whatsoever, brochures, catalogues, catalogue sheets, pamphlets, periodicals, advertisements, circulars or trade letters, press releases, trade releases, publicity releases, new product releases, reprints, drafts of any documents, working papers, indices, original or preliminary notes, computer printouts, floppy disks, hard drives, CD-ROM's, magnetic tapes and other data compilations from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary by Hewlett Packard Company through detection devices into reasonably usable form. The term document also refers to any tangible object other than a document as described above, and includes objects of every kind and nature such as, but not limited to, prototypes, models, and specimens.

The documents to be produced on or before January 19, 2007, include the following:

1. All documents provided by Tatung Company, Tatung America, or ViewSonic to Hewlett Packard regarding: (i) marketing, sales, or business documents or presentation materials; (ii) technical specifications and/or drawings regarding Tatung Company's, Tatung America's, or ViewSonic's visual display products, including but not limited to the assembly of such products; and (iii) any documents relating to warranties, product support, or service provided by Tatung Company, Tatung America, or ViewSonic regarding their visual display products.

2. Documents provided by Hewlett Packard to Tatung Company, Tatung America, or ViewSonic sufficient to show (i) Hewlett Packard's design requirements for its visual display products, (ii) Hewlett Packard's market for its visual display products, and/or (iii) market trends in the United States for visual display products.

3. Documents sufficient to show the business relationship between Hewlett Packard and Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic, including documents in which Hewlett Packard has agreed to purchase visual display products directly from Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic.

4. All documents related to the manufacture and/or assembly of Tatung Company's, Tatung America's, and/or ViewSonic's visual display products.

5. All documents by which Hewlett Packard has agreed to purchase from original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs") any visual display products that Hewlett Packard had reason to believe were manufactured or assembled in whole or in part by Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic, and documents sufficient to show that Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic received notice of Hewlett Packard's agreements to purchase.

6. Documents sufficient to show Hewlett Packard's receipt or purchase of visual display products sold, manufactured, shipped, imported, or distributed in whole or in part by Tatung Company, Tatung America, and ViewSonic.

7. Documents sufficient to show the total quantity of visual display products sold, by product, by Hewlett Packard that were manufactured or assembled in whole or in part by Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic, including separate summaries for (1) Tatung Company products, (2) Tatung America products, and (3) ViewSonic products.

8. Documents sufficient to show the total dollar value of visual display products sold, by product, by Hewlett Packard that were manufactured or assembled in whole or in part by Tatung Company, Tatung America, and/or ViewSonic, including separate summaries for (1) Tatung Company products, (2) Tatung America products, and (3) ViewSonic products.
